Source of Acquisition

The Emory M. Cox Receipts were purchased by Special Collections in 2008. Sold in a lot named the "Scott County Collection," the receipts were accompanied by an 1854 letter from William Vinson and a land sale contract between Samuel Wallace and John Allan. In the course of processing, the items were divided into three separate manuscript collections.

Processing Information

The processing, arrangement, and description of the Emory M. Cox Receipts commenced and was completed in July 2008.
