Scope and Content

The King George County (Va.) Building Plans, Woodlawn, 1933, consists of nine blueprint architectural drawings and plans of the historic home known as Woodlawn plantation. The original portion of the home was constructed for Colonel Thomas Turner circa 1790. The central section was built around 1841. W. Harrison Pringle, an architect with the construction firm of Muhleman and Kayhoe, Inc., executed the drawings for the restoration. These blueprints were housed in the King George County courthouse.
