Biographical Information

Timothy M. Kaine was born on 26 February 1958 in St. Paul, Minnesota. He grew up in Kansas City and graduated from the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1979. While attending Harvard Law School, Kaine took a leave of absence to work with Jesuit missionaries as principal of the Institutio Tecnico Loyola, a Catholic vocational school in El Progreso, Honduras. Kaine graduated from Harvard Law School in 1983 and was admitted to the Virginia Bar. Practicing law in Richmond, Virginia, as director of the McCandlish Kaine law firm, Kaine specialized in housing discrimination cases. He received recognition from the Richmond Bar Association, the National Fair Housing Association, and Lawyers for Public Justice for his work with civil rights. In addition, Kaine taught legal ethics for six years at the University of Richmond Law School.

Kaine began his political career with an election to the Richmond City Council in 1994, serving as mayor from 1998 to 2001. During his four terms in the Richmond City Council, Kaine helped build new schools, encourage economic development, and implement the Project Exile Program to reduce violent crime. In 2001, Kaine was elected Lieutenant Governor under Governor Mark R. Warner. As Lieutenant Governor, Kaine supported state budget reform, education improvements, and the public broadcasting of the General Assembly. He served on the Governor's K-12 Accountability Workgroup, the Governor's Higher Education Summit, the Workforce Training Sub-Committee, the Secure Virginia Panel, the Citizens & Committees Sub-Committee, and chairman of the Disability Commission. In addition, Kaine worked on the Affordable Housing Preservation Action Committee, the Virginia Military Advisory Council, and the Olmstead Task Force.

On 14 January 2006, Kaine was inaugurated as Governor of Virginia. He is married to Anne Bright Holton, youngest daughter of former Governor Linwood Holton. Anne and Tim have three children, Nat, Woody, and Annella.

Scope and Content

The Lieutenant Governor records consist of 101 archival boxes and are divided into three series. Series have been designated for Boards and Commissions, Constituent Correspondence, and Legislation Files & Supporting Documentation. These records document the work of Timothy M. Kaine as lieutenant governor under Governor Mark R Warner. The Boards & Commissions series contains useful documentation on some of the projects Kaine was involved in, especially the Secure Virginia Panel, Virginia's anti-terrorism task force. The bulk of the records can be found in the Constituent Correspondence series which includes letters sent to Lieutenant Governor Tim Kaine and Governor Mark Warner. Lastly, the Legislation Files and Supporting Documentation series provides valuable background information filed in the Office of the Lieutenant Governor.

Arrangement

This collection is arranged into the following series:

- Series I. Boards and Commissions, 1995-2005 (bulk 2002-2005)
- Series II. Constituent Correspondence, 2002-2005
- Series III. Legislative Files & Supporting Documentation, 1992-2005 (bulk 2002-2005)

Subseries E: Olmstead Task Force, 2002-2003.

Extent

1 box.

Scope and Content

The Olmstead Task Force subseries is housed in one archival box and is arranged in alphabetical order. This subseries contains memorandums, reports, correspondence, agendas, notes, presentations, and other sundry items. The subseries documents the work of the task force established to develop an Olmstead plan for Virginia to serve persons with disabilities. The Olmstead Decision by the Supreme Court in 1999 upheld the U.S. Dept. of Justice's regulations mandating that states must administer their programs in the most integrated setting appropriate to the needs of persons with disabilities. The decision of Olmstead v. L.C. prohibits states from placing persons with disabilities in inappropriate institutional placements, asserting that, under the ADA, continued unjustified institutionalization is a violation of an individual's right to live in the most integrated setting appropriate to his/her needs and to have choices. This subseries includes information regarding the Olmstead v. L.C. Case, waiver meetings, and task force meetings. Also noteworthy is a copy of "One Community: Final Report of the Task Force to Develop an Olmstead Plan for Virginia."

Subseries B: Subject Files, 2002-2005.

Extent

27 boxes.

Scope and Content

This subseries is housed in twenty-seven archival boxes and is arranged in alphabetical order by subject. The subseries contains correspondence, invitations, reports, publications, press releases, news clippings, event briefings, photographs, legislation, and other background material maintained by the Lieutenant Governor's Office. Included are materials related to the following subjects: Economic Development, Education, General Files, Healthcare, & Invitations. The largest group within this subseries is related to invitations. The invitations are arranged chronologically by the date of the event or correspondence and often include Tim Kaine's letter in response to the invitation. In addition, there are e-mails from Sherrie Harrington, Director of Administration & Scheduling, Carey Friedman, Director of Policy, and Anita A. Rimler, Secretary of the Commonwealth. Note that invitations for 2004 are divided into confirmed invitations & regrets. There are only regrets for 2005. The General Files contain publications, correspondence, press releases, news clippings, legislation, and other items related to the budget, childcare, the Coalition for Virginia's Future, the environment, Oceana Naval Air Station, and other subjects. Also noteworthy are files related to Virginia Indian tribes and the Walter Plecker legacy.
