Historical Information

Charles City County was named for Charles I of England and was one of the eight shires established in 1634.

Records have been destroyed at various times. The most damage occurred during the Civil War when the records were strewn through the woods in a rainstorm. A few pre-Civil War volumes such as deed books, will books, minute books, and order books exist.

This record was replevined by the Library of Virginia following the trial entitled Commonwealth of Virginia vs. Larry I. Vass heard in Henrico County Circuit Court in November 1972.

Scope and Content

Charles City County (Va.) Court Record, undated. The collection contains a document removed from Charles City County court records. The document is an envelope from the case, Asgn. of Southall vs. Blake. The envelope is addressed to the Clerk, Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for Charles City County.
