Historical Information

Dinwiddie County is named for Robert Dinwiddie, lieutenant governor of Virginia from 1751-1758. The county was formed from Prince George County in 1752.

The bulk of court records prior to 1865 were stolen, mutilated and/or destroyed by Union troops who ransacked the courthouse during the last months of the Civil War. Post-1830 volumes such as deed books, will books, chancery order books, and marriage registers exist.

Scope and Content

Plats are maps, drawn to scale, showing the divisions of a piece of land. Information commonly found in plats are property boundaries, land features, and names of property owners.

These plats were made in connection with a land transaction, estate settlement or court case.
