Preferred Citation

Researchers wishing to cite this collection should include the following information: [identification of item], [box], [folder], William A. Duerr Papers, Ms1975-006, Special Collections and University Archives, Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, Va.

Biographical Note

William A. Duerr was born in Maine on July 7, 1911. By 1930, he was living in Manhattan with his widowed mother, Virginia R. Duerr. Duerr graduated from Iowa State College before obtaining a master's degree in agricultural economics from the University of Minnesota and a Ph.D. in economics from Harvard in 1944. He served in the research branch of the U. S. Forest Service for several years and was in charge of forest surveys and economics research at the Southern Forest Experiment Station in New Orleans for six years following World War II. Duerr served as chairman of the Forestry Economics Department at the New York State College of Forestry from 1952 until 1972, when he was hired to fill Virginia Tech's Thomas M. Brooks professorship in forestry. He served in that position until 1980. William A. Duerr died on December 25, 2002.

Scope and Content

This collection contains writings of William A. Duerr, professor of forestry at Virginia Tech from 1972 to 1980. Included are extracts and reprints of articles for various scholarly journals, books, and professional conferences, as well as working copies of two books. The publications were all authored or co-authored by Duerr and relate to various topics in forestry.

Separated Materials

Several publications were separated from the collection and cataloged for the Rare Book Collection. These items may be accessed through a search of the library's online catalog.
