In 1965, Camelot Builders Inc. purchased a large tract of land in West Springfield, Virginia and developed Orange Hunt Estates over a fifteen-year period from 1965 to 1980. The development consisted of single-family houses and townhouses bordered by Old Keene Mill Road and the present-day Fairfax County Parkway. Residents formed the Orange Hunt Estates Civic Association shortly after completion of the first homes in 1966. All residents are due-paying members of the association which exists to preserve the quality of life and property values of the community. The association implements safety and beautifying programs and holds general membership meetings a few times a year.
