Biographical / Historical

In 1909, Jennie Masters Tabb was hired as the first official registrar of the State Female Normal School. Prior to this, the duties of the registrar were handled by the office of the normal school president. The duties of the registrar's office, at that time, included admissions, student registration, and official recording of grades.

Scope and Contents

This collection, which ranges in date from 1884 to 1994, contains ledgers which include student registration, student grades, and other statistical information.
