Biographical sketch

Delta Psi Kappa, a women's physical education honorary society, was founded in 1916 at the Normal College of the American Gymnastic Union. Its original purpose was to further the aims and ideals of the profession of physical education. Included in the ranks of the organization is Gertrude Ederle, the first woman to swim the English Channel. Turnverein, Longwood's local honorary physical education society, became a chapter of Delta Psi Kappa in March of 1968. The organization was active on campus until about 2003.

Scope and content

The Delta Psi Kappa Collection, which ranges in date from 1901 to 2002, includes a variety of print materials, scrapbook materials, photograph albums with photographs and slides of sporting events, physical education classes, and social gatherings at Longwood College.
