Historical Information

The Prince William Cultural Arts Federation was a non-profit organization that ended in 1993 after thirteen years of promoting and funding arts groups in Prince William County. They provided support and raised awareness for other visual and performance arts organizations in the community by establishing cultural centers, advocating for arts in public education, sought sources of funding for the arts, and encouraging attendance at all arts events.

Scope and Content

The Prince William Cultural Arts Federation records include correspondence, position descriptions and applications, memos, administrative documents, budget information and other documents dating from 1979 until the early 1990s when the CAF disbanded.

Related Material

Special Collections Research Center holds several other notable collections related to performing arts in Virginia such as the Prince William Symphony Orchestra records.
