Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

This collection was donated to the Arthur J. Morris Law Library by Peter L. Paull Jr. on 31 July 2001.

Biographical / Historical

Peter L. Paull Jr. graduated from the Law School in 1967 and has been practicing law in New Bedford, Massachusetts, since 1970. He is also admitted to practice in Virginia and Connecticut.

The Libel Show is an annual theatrical production lampooning law professors and Law School life. Originated by the Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity in 1908, by 1961 the size of the show had outgrown the population of the fraternity and became an independent production. The Libel Show includes a variety of impersonations, song parodies, and skits.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains faculty photographs and programs used in the Libel Show, an annual theatrical production that has been lampooning professors and life at the Law School since 1908. The Libel Show programs date from 1949 to 1964 with some gaps.

The photographs were used in connection with the magazine for the class of 1967 and are located in the photo collection file cabinets.

The Libel Show programs were merged with other programs in RG-32-201 Libel Show and Phi Delta Phi records.
