Conditions Governing Use

There are some restrictions.

Immediate Source of Acquisition

These papers were transferred to the Law Library in June of 1992.

Scope and Contents

This addendum to the Meador Papers is comprised of Justice Department Papers (1977-1982 and University faculty committee work (1976-1977).

The Justice Department papers are Meador's and Charles Haworth's personal and working papers on both phases of the federal circuit court plan. Meador's papers are arranged alphabetically and Haworth's maintained the chronology he gave to his files. There are also papers related to the Federal Court Improvement Act, copies of the legislative history, and Meador's collection of memoranda, speeches, legislative material, and clippings on the new appellate court. here numbered

The University of Virginia faculty committee files portray Meador's work on a number of law school and university-wide committees, one of which is restricted
