Letters

Robert Lowell to Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1864 Jul 19

Extent

ALS,
4 p.

Scope and Content

[Discusses The New Priest in Conception Bay, about which Rev. Ward has written in The Christian Examiner; says his brother, James Russell Lowell, did not help in the making of the character "Bangs," that he had no help from anyone, except for some deletions in the second edition which Caleb Sprague Henry suggested; says that, although in poetry, he cannot make "fun," as his brother can, he needs no help with prose; disclaims familiarity with writings to which others have likened The New Priest; mentions the unsympathetic, slighting way of Charles Eliot Norton and Robert Lowell's brother, James, both with the North American Review; expresses the hope of a visit to Duanesburg by Ward; discusses several characters in The New Priest; mentions Mr. Tucker, George Herbert, John Keble.]

Robert Lowell to Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1865 Jul 4

Extent

ALS,
3 p.

Scope and Content

[Answers a letter from Ward concerning a visit to Duaneburg; expresses a hope that the delay in his answer will not keep Ward and the Rev. Tucker from visiting him; says that, since he is crippled from an injury, he will not be able to meet them in Albany & Susquehanna Railroad; says he is also writing to Ward's address in Ansonia, Connecticut; speaks of an upcoming trip on a steam frigate; sends compliments to Tucker and William Buell Sprague.]

Robert Lowellto Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1865 Jul 6

Extent

ALS,
2 p.

Scope and Content

[Sends regrets, a duplicate having gone to William Buell Sprague, that he must leave on the frigate for a trip of three or four weeks; expresses hope that Ward's visit can be postponed.]

Robert Lowellto Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1865 Aug 12

Extent

ALS,

Robert Lowellto Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1866 Jan 23

Extent

ALS,
3 p.

Scope and Content

[Comments on the doggerel in the Round Table; asks if Ward received his hymn in the first draft; states that Thomas Hughes does the Lowell family too much honor in saying eight members died in the Civil War, three of whom (Stephen George Perkins, Robert Gould Shaw, and one of the Russells), belong to other families; refers to an article by Thomas Hughes, "Young Heroes of the Civil War" (published as "Peace On Earth" in Macmillan Magazine, London, January 1866); article states that eight members of the Lowell family died in the Civil War.]

Robert Lowellto Julius Hammond Ward

Extent

ALS,
2 p.

Scope and Content

[Expresses pleasure that Ward is moving to a parish in Marblehead, Massachusetts; praises Newfoundlanders and other British fishermen as kindly and loving; mentions reviews of Antony Brade, A Story of a School, in The American Church Review and Scribner's Monthly, and one to be in International Review; hopes to visit him in Marblehead.]

Robert Lowell to Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1878 Nov 14

Extent

ALS,
4 p.

Scope and Content

[Thanks him for his critique of A Story or Two from an Old Dutch Town in The Times; discusses the way the American-Dutch characters in the stories were made and that the Dutch like the book; acknowledges that those who didn't like Antony Bradewill not forget their unkindness and hopes other higher guides of opinion will approve; mentions William Eliot Griffis and his book The Mikado's Empire, Solomon Stoddard, Whitesuntide at Pinkster Hill in Schenectady, The Christian Intelligencer, and some fictional characters.]

Robert Lowell to Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1881 Nov 9

Extent

ALS,
3 p.

Scope and Content

[Expresses satisfaction with the part Ward will have in Bishop William Stevens Perry's The History of the American Episcopal Church, 1587-1883; comments that a serious medical problem has kept him from intellectual work and that he has been idle except for six months in his old rector's job in Duaneburg; and offer from a publisher for a new book has had to wait; mentions Mary Ann Duane Lowell.]

Robert Lowell to Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1887 May 20

Extent

ALS,
4 p.

Scope and Content

[Thanks him for his sympathy on the death of his son; discusses his son's good character; states that Ward deserves good pay for his work and asks if it would be improper, in writing to Henry Mason Baum, to say that if he still wants his articles it may be possible to arrange matters; mentions writing to Roberts Brothers requesting that Ward be sent some books.]

Robert Lowell to Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1887 May 27

Extent

ALS,
3 p.

Scope and Content

[States that he has not heard from Roberts Brothers and fears that they will not be able to buy a copy of

The New Priest, that Roberts Brothers holds the plates, hoping to bring out a new edition after he has given them another novel to publish; fearing that "out of print" means "out of stock," he is sending a copy of the first edition of The New Priest and a second edition of Poems, and that Roberts Brothers can supply their later publications; discusses how he has not fulfilled others' expectation of him; mentions Levi Hedge, Frederic Henry Hedge.]

Robert Lowell to Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1887 Jul 5

Extent

ALS,
4 p.

Scope and Content

[Discusses Ward's being cheated regarding a horse and offering to help find another (including a passage in Latin regarding his own experiences with horses); tells him to do as he likes about the paper for Critic; discusses the style of portrait he has selected for the frontispiece, as the article will be given first place; mentions that Henry Mason Baum asked for some "points" from Edward Josiah Stearns, which Robert Lowell must now forward.]

Robert Lowell to Julius Hammond Ward

Unit Date 1888 Mar 20

Extent

ALS,
4 p.

Scope and Content

[Thanking Ward for his letter of sympathy regarding his son's death; discusses the Lord's handling of the death, that overwork killed his son, and that Ward should slow down, including not writing that article on Robert Lowell, unless he's paid and it is done in lieu of other work; discusses the history of attempts to get the article, "Dr. Robert Lowell and His Writings," written; mentions a portrait; mentions Henry Mason Baum, Epephanus Wilson, Edward Josiah Stearns, Francis Alexander, Chester Harding, The American Church Review.]
