Albemarle County, Va., land grants, 1770, 1846, Accession #11285, Special Collections Dept., University of Virginia Library, Charlottesville, Va.

Scope and Content Information

There are two grants, 1770 and 1846, pertaining to land in Albemarle County, Virginia. There is a land patent, August 27, 1770, by which George the Third of Great Britain, France, and Ireland did grant and confirm unto Joseph Hawkins a tract or parcel of land containing three hundred and seventy acres lying and being in Albemarle County on both sides of Moorman's River and bounded by lines including those of William Shelton and William McCord. The patent is signed by Botetourt [Norborne Berkeley (1718-1770)], governor of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia. There is also a land grant, June 30, 1846, by which William Smith, governor of Virginia, did grant unto Garland T. Brown a tract or parcel of land eighteen acres on the north side of Buck's Elbow and waters of Moorman's River in Albemarle County.
