Preferred Citation

World War I Wall Hanging and Photographs, ca. 1917-1919, in the Joseph M. Brucoli Great War Collection, Accession #10875-az, Special Collections Dept., University of Virginia Library, Charlottesville, Va.

Scope and Content Information

This collection, ca. 1917-1919, consists of a wall hanging with a patriotic design expressing these sentiments, "Remember Me" "Sweet be to thee life's passing hours, And all thy path be decked with flowers" on the top half and an American flag design for the bottom half, which also forms a pocket. It also includes three black and white photographs of unidentified groups of [American?] soldiers, one with the inscription, "Waiting for Inspection, August 6."
