Conditions Governing Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Manuscript collections and archival records may contain materials with sensitive or confidential information that is protected under federal or state right to privacy laws and regulations, such as the Virginia Public Records Act (Code of Virginia. § 42.1-76-91); and the Virginia Freedom of Information Act (Code of Virginia § 2.2-3705.5). Confidential material may include, but is not limited to, educational, medical, and personnel records. If sensitive material is found in this collection, please contact a staff member immediately. The disclosure of personally identifiable information pertaining to a living individual may have legal consequences for which the College of William and Mary assumes no responsibility.

Conditions Governing Use

Before publishing quotations or excerpts from any materials, permission must be obtained from the Curator of Manuscripts and Rare Books, and the holder of the copyright, if not Swem Library.

Preferred Citation

George W. Erving, Special Collections Research Center, William & Mary Libraries.

Biographical / Historical

George W. Erving was a British born political operative. Erving worked with Samuel Adams. This letter indicates that Erving travelled Virginia to poll Norfolk, Richmond, and Fredericksburg before the election of 1800. In this letter, which was presumably written back to Massachusetts, Erving concluded that the Jeffersonians would win the election.

Content Description

Collection contains a letter written by George W. Erving, after canvassing parts of Virginia for the election of 1800, stating that the Jeffersonians would be the clear winners.

General

William & Mary Libraries' archival, digital and physical collections may contain content with harmful language or difficult subject matters. We strive for transparency in making these materials available for teaching and research, but we do not endorse the attitudes, prejudices or behaviors found within them.

William & Mary Libraries' perspective on harmful content and language aligns with the U.S. National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), Digital Public Library of America (DPLA) and university libraries around the world.

Arrangement

The George W. Erving letter is arranged into one series.
