Biographical Information:

Faculty member including master of the Grammar School, President (1812-1814)

Administrative History:

John Bracken was the ninth President of the College of William and Mary and a professor of humanity.

Scope and Contents

This collection consists of two documents. One is dated August 13, 1791 and signed by John Bracken. It is an agreement among William Griffin of King and Queen County, Corbin Griffin of York County, Cyris and Samuel Griffin of Williamsburg, and Richard Adams of Richmond. Bracken is mentioned twice in the document. The other document is dated October 26, 1792 and appears to be related to the first. Written and signed by Bracken, the document serves as a receipt of transfer/sale of stock and involves Richard Adams and William Griffin.
