Powell Family Papers - Hepburn Addition, Special Collections Research Center, William & Mary Libraries

Biographical Information:

Leven Powell was born near Manassas, Prince William County, Virginia in 1737. He moved to Loudoun County in 1763 and served as major in the Revolutionary Army. Appointed lieutenant-colonel of the Sixteenth Regiment in the Continental Line in 1777. He served in the Virginia House of Delegates and as a delegate to the Virginia Convention which ratified the U.S. Constitution in 1788. He was elected as a Federalist to Congress. He died in 1810 in Bedford, Pennsylvania.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains correspondence of Leven Powell, James Madison, Charles Leven Powell, Charles Leven Powell, Jr., Selina Powell Hepburn, and others. Recipients include Burr Powell, Cuthbert Powell, Sewell Stavelly Hepbrun [Hepburn] and others. First 30 years of correspondence is mainly written by or addressed to Leven Powell, detailing his involvement in the Revolutionary War, the Virginia House of Delegates, and the United State Congress, including letters about the Election of 1800. After 1810, letters are primarily correspondence between various members of the Powell family, including some letters about the Civil War. Also includes family tree of the Hepburn Family.

Related Materials:
