Confidential material may include, but is not limited to, educational, medical, and personnel records. If sensitive material is found in this collection, please contact a staff member immediately. The disclosure of personally identifiable information pertaining to a living individual may have legal consequences for which the College of William and Mary assumes no responsibility.

Conditions Governing Use:

Before reproducing or quoting from any materials, in whole or in part, permission must be obtained from the Special Collections Research Center, and the holder of the copyright, if not Swem Library.

Preferred Citation:

St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church (Portsmouth, Va.) Minute Book, 1925-1929, Special Collections Research Center, William & Mary Libraries.

Historical Note:

In 1845, vestry members from Trinity Church in Portsmouth, Virginia, and other parishioners, opposing certain Oxford movement teachings, initiated the creation of St. John's Church. In 1848, Bishop William Meade and the Diocesan Council approved the new church's formation in 1848. The first church was completed in 1850 at Court and London Streets with Rev. James Chisholm as its first rector. In 1897, the church received a permit to build its current building at London and Washington Streets.
