Scope and Contents

Professional and personal papers of Parke Shepherd Rouse, Jr. who was a newspaper writer and columnist and an author of books on Virginia.

His personal correspondence covers his college years at Washington and Lee University; his years in the Navy during World War II; his early career while working in Richmond, Virginia and Newport News, Virginia; and his business affairs. His college and Navy letters include not only the letters he wrote home, but the letters he received from family and friends. Memorabilia, articles and official papers from his time in the Navy are also included. His personal papers include material on his leadership roles in the Jamestown Festival and Colonial Records Project, among others. Sixty-four playbills from the 1930's and 1940's are also part of this collection.

His professional papers include his notes, research, drafts, transcripts, notecards, photographs, clippings, correspondence, financial material and copies/drafts of his books, articles and columns. The material includes copies of his Sunday feature column in the Daily Press which were vignettes of people, places and the history of Virginia, mostly in the Williamsburg and Tidewater area from the 17th to the 20th century. Some notes and research are for books and articles that he never wrote or published, mostly about late 18th century and early 19th century famous people, places and events in Virginia.

Other Parke Rouse Gifts

Jamestown Festival Park Scrapbooks (Mss 1996.48). Scrapbooks of newsclippings and some photographs about Jamestown Festival Park beginning in 1955 for the 350th anniversary of Jamestown.

Other Parke Rouse Gifts

David Edward Cronin's "The Vest Mansion", 1908-1910 Mss. Acc. 1996.32 and Acc. 1997.11.

Sub-Series 2: Publications - Articles and ColumnsUnit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/268239Unit Date 1937-1996Language EnglishScope and Contents

Mostly original newspaper and magazine columns and articles written by Parke Rouse, beginning with his time in the US Navy in 1936. He wrote columns for the Richmond Times-Dispatch and later for the Daily Press and Times-Herald of Newport News, Virginia. His columns had various names over the years, but he concentrated on Virginia history, particularly Richmond, Williamsburg and area, York County, Gloucester County, Hampton and Newport News. He wrote about people, places and events from prehistoric times to the present. Many columns voiced his views on how the area had changed since his boyhood. Many columns included photographs of the people and places mentioned. Even though loosely grouped by decades, some folders may have originally been organized by subject matter. Later folders in this subseries are grouped by subject as were noted by Parke Rouse.

Series 2: Correspondence

Unit ID id66228

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/258698

Unit Date 1930-1998

Language English

Scope and Contents

The correspondence series is divided into 2 subseries: "Letters written to Parke Rouse" and "Letters from Parke Rouse." The correspondence is further organized by year ranges, maintaining the chronological and sometimes alphabetical arrangement used by Parke Rouse.

The time period covers Rouse's childhood; his college years at Washington and Lee; his early career at the Richmond Times Dispatch; his time in the Navy during and after World War II; his later years as a successful columnist and writer; and his retirement years.

Most time periods include not only the letters that Parke Rouse received, but the letters he wrote, giving different perspectives to the events in his life.

Some correspondents from 1950-1997 include Thomas N. Allen; J. Lindsay Almond, Jr; J. Bell, Jr; Thomas C. Boushall, Carl Bridenbough; Arleigh Burke; Harry F. Byrd, Jr., Herb Caen; Mosby Cardozo; Lester J. Cappon; Leslie Cheek; Bill and Hillary Rodham Clinton, A. Christian Compton; John Warren Cooke; Virginius Dabney; John N. Dalton, Colgate W. Darden, Jr., Clifford Dowdey; John W. Elrod; Gerald R. Ford; Mills E. Godwin, Jr.; Thomas A. Graves, Jr.; Bowman Gray; Elmon T. Gray; Albertis S. Harrison, Jr.; Robert V. Hatcher; Quintin Hogg, the Lord Hailsham of St. Marleybone; Hubert H. Humphrey; Jacques Kosciusko-Morizet; William A. Lashley; Dumas Malone; Marvin Mandel; Mrs. Edward Stephens (Helen) McCarthy; Mary Tyler Cheek McClenahan; Charles McDowell; Roger Mudd; Eugene Ormandy; Davis Y. Paschall; Lewis F. Powell, Jr.; O. W. Scope and Contents

Parke Rouse filed his correspondence alphabetically by correspondent. He created 6 different groups during his lifetime.

The first group begins in the 1930's and covers the time he was an undergraduate at Washington and Lee and his early jobs with the Daily Press in Newport News, Virginia and the Richmond-Times Dispatch in Richmond, Virginia. It is arranged alphabetically by correspondent.

The second group covers his work years at the Richmond-Times Dispatch and his early years in the Navy during World War II, 1941-1942. It is arranged alphabetically by correspondent.

The third group covers his time in the Navy as a Navy Ensign, then Lieutenant, beginning with training at Harvard, 1944-1945. It is arranged alphabetically by correspondent.

The fourth group covers his time in the Navy, 1944-1946. It is arranged alphabetically by correspondent.

The fifth group, which covers the years 1942-1946, is in chronological order but was probably originally in alphabetical order by correspondent. The letters had been removed from their envelopes, and with few last names on the letters, it was impossible to recreate alphabetically.

The sixth group covers 1950-1998, is in alphabetical order by correspondent and includes an index.

Letters from family members are mostly in the alphabetical groups, but are also found in the chronological group. Parke Rouse and his Mother corresponded weekly, often numbering their letters and responses. Correspondents include immediate family, other relatives, neighbors, college friends, navy friends and some business contacts. Depending on the time period, the subject matter covers social activities, news of friends and relatives, war news, and immediate family news/activities. During and immediately following World War II, the letters tell of the many different experiences from the point of view of friends, family, and community.

Sub-Series 2: Correspondence - Letters from Parke Rouse

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/268248

Unit Date 1933-1945, 1980

Language English

Scope and Contents

Letters written by Parke Rouse to his parents, siblings, and other relatives. The time periods are the same as the letters received by Parke Rouse in subseries 1 which creates a unique opportunity to see both sides of a correspondence exchange. These letters are in chronological order.

In his early letters, Rouse writes about college social life, sport rivalries, friends, neighbors, home and relatives. He often advises his brother who is not as academically inclined as he is, even giving their Mother advice on how to motivate him. Other early letters cover his early career after college and before World War II.

Parke Rouse worked for the Richmond Times Dispatch as a reporter when he received a commission as a Navy Ensign in 1942. He trained in Boston at Harvard before being sent to Italy. His letters are censored, but he does share his Navy experiences in the United States, Europe and on the Eastern Front. He tells of home, family, college and Navy friends he encounters during his postings. He continues writing articles during this time period and often tries (and sometimes succeeds) to sell his stories to publications.

There is a gap between 1945 and 1980. The 1980 folder includes letters written by Rouse with attached replies.

The following is a timeline of where Rouse lived, worked or was posted while writing and receiving letters, highlighting some of the events and concerns in his life.

1933-36 Attends Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Virginia.

1940, 1941 Works at Richmond Times-Dispatch doing the police beat, front page stories, legislature and other things. Virginius Dabney was the editor and a mentor to Rouse.

June 1942 Brother Dashiell is in the Navy at Ft. Knox and friends are joining the military. Parke wants a Navy commission; worries about the draft; mentions blackouts and a flag speech he wrote for Langhorne.

September 1942 Receives commission as an Ensign in the Procurement Office of the Navy with training at Harvard for 6 months; writes article on fraternities which was published, but censored by Mr. Bryan. (G. Tennant Bryan)?

October 1942 Realizes he is in the Navy; tells of his courses on ships, weapons, and more; shares experiences of being in Boston.

December 1942 Mentions the Cocoanut Grove fire.

August 1943 Stationed in North Africa on the USS James O'Hara. One job he has is Postal Officer. His letters are censored, so most of them are filled with talk about his friends and free time activities.

October 16, 1943 Becomes a Lieutenant; mentions that he took part in invasion of Italy, giving some details; visits Algiers.

November 1943 Hopes to come home for leave.

April - June 1945 Assigned for shore duty with CinCPac in Honolulu, Hawaii, then at CinCPac in San Francisco.

July 25 1945 Assigned to Navy Cargo ship going to Pearl Harbor.

Early August 1945, Arrives in Hawaii, then goes immediately to Guam for "temporary duty" on the "Navy News at Guam," a Navy newspaper for troops in the Pacific; waits for news of the war; mentions that Japanese prisoners were let loose in hopes of rounding up Japanese troops living in the hills.

By the end of August Transferred to the Public Information Office. Talks of joy that the war is over; mentions that he might not have enough points to go home; tries to pull every string he can to get back stateside - his commanders, his friends in the Navy, his newspaper contacts in the Navy and United States and others. CinCPac returns to Pearl Harbor, but Rouse stays in Guam as part of ComMarianas.

While in the Pacific, Rouse describes the area, the towns, the social life, his friends and the local population. He often runs into people he knows from past postings, from home, from school and other places.

Scope and Contents

These files included mostly photocopies and photostat copies of research material of Robert Douthat Meade. They were in 10 folders arranged in alphabetical order. Since the material was not original nor related to Parke Rouse's research, they have not been kept. A few original items have been kept: postcard of Wright Square in Savannah, Georgia; postcard of Madison Square; photograph of monument to De Kalb in Camden, South Carolina; and a portfolio of reproductions of photographs by Ken Sturgeon, staff photographer of WIS-TV, December 1969. Robert Douthat Meade was head of the History Department at Randolph Macon Woman's College. He taught Betsy Rouse who graduated from Randolph Macon in 1942. His wife, Lucy Burwell Boyd of Warrenton, North Carolina, a cousin of Betsy Rouse, gave Parke Rouse this material in case he wanted it for his research with permission to discard if not needed.

Family material given to Parke Rouse by Mrs. John Page Simpson, Jr. of Miles, Virginia. The Simpson Family is from Norfolk, Virginia with a connection to the Smith Family. Items include a 1868 May 12 letter from Covington in Columbus, Mississippi to his Mother where he notes that money and trade are scarce and he will be unable to visit because he "must economize." A 1898 May 18 letter from S.M. Smith on the USA S. Solace while at sea off the coast of Cuba to "my dear little Junior Friends," probably during the Spanish American War. He notes that his mailing address is Key West, Florida; his Mother, Mrs. M.A. Smith, lives in Auburn, North Carolina and the "Juniors" are from Berkeley (Norfolk, Virginia) where they all attended Christian Endeavor. 1913 December 6 letter from John Page Simpson, Jr. to "My dear Santa Clause" with gift requests. July 11 (no year) letter from John while at sea to his Mother in Norfolk where he mentions that he is limited in what he says because of the censors. Undated letter from John, while at Virginia Military Institute, to his Father about his schedule, his expenses (with a detailed list) and his hope his parents will visit for the Virginia game. 1985 November 13 letter from [Manbeth] Simpson to her friends about her fond memories of VMI and Virginia. 2 empty envelopes.
