Preferred Citation:

Augusta County (Va.) Secession Debate Record, Special Collections Research Center, William & Mary Libraries.

Content Description

One page document detailing a meeting of 'gentlemen' at the house of Van Laer for the purpose of debating the question of secession by one state or a minority of states from the Union. After debate, those present signed either in the affirmative opinion or the negative. The final piece of the document reads, "After a full discussion it was decided in favor of the affirmative."
