Scope and Content Information

Hand-colored, ink and pencil drawings of eighteenth- and nineteenth-century coaches or carriages. The drawings depict cabriolets, chariots, curricles, landaus, phaetons, and other types of coaches. Four of the drawings contain a brief description and price list on the back. They were possibly used as samples for prospective customers by an eighteenth- or early nineteenth-century English coachmaker. Several of the drawings contain the signature of Samuel Hobson, London, coachmaker. The collection also includes three drawings executed by John Hatchett.
