Scope and Content

These manuscript volumes offer firsthand insight into early 19th-century transportation in the neighborhood of Bingham, Maine. One includes the years 1817-1839, while the other covers the years 1817-1832. They provide a combination of personal and business accounts concerning stage and mail routes, as well as victualing and rent of conveyances. Patron names and prices for purveyance of various commodities are also included.
