Biographical / Historical

Greenland Thompson (G.T.) Federer (1888-1961) was born in Washington County, Pennsylvania, the son of the Reverend and Mrs. G. A. Federer. In 1897 they moved to Preston County, West Virginia and then to Morgantown in 1908. He received his early education in the public schools and graduated from Fairmont State Normal School in 1915. He attended West Virginia University seeking an A.B. degree, 1915 to 1917, but his education was interrupted by his service during World War I in Company E, 317 Infantry, 80th Division of the United States Army. After the war he returned from France to Morgantown where he started a mercantile business, a meat market, in 1919. He married Thora Leoti Robinson, a teacher at the William R. White School in Fairmont, in 1920.

In 1924, Federer, a Republican, was elected to represent Monongalia County in the West Virginia House of Delegates where he served on the Taxation and Finance Committee, the Prohibition and Temperance Committee, and the State Boundaries and Re-Districting Committee.

For a brief time after WWII Federer sold real estate. He continued to live in Morgantown until his death in 1961.

Excerpted from a marriage notice in The West Virginian (Fairmont, WV) 1920, and the West Virginia Blue Book, 1926.
