Abstract

Papers of James ("Jim") Franklin Comstock of Richwood, West Virginia, whose position as editor of the West Virginia Hillbilly and avocation as collector and advocate of all things West Virginia led to the preservation of much of the state's physical, visual, and textual history. The collection includes materials Comstock collected about West Virginia history as well as his own personal and professional papers. Materials include: general series of historical documents such as letters, deeds, and county court cases pertaining to a diverse range of subjects (1717, 1754-1988, undated [includes facsimiles]); letters of Lucy Prichard, former instructor at Marshall College (now Marshall University) (1925-1927, undated); clippings and typescripts of Wirt County resident and Atlantic Monthly writer Louis Eckert Reed (ca. 1960-1975, undated); account books concerning economic development and commercial activities in the northern part of the state in the 19th and early 20th centuries (1830-1938); printed material about West Virginia schools, businesses, and events as well as non-West Virginia books and pamphlets (1829-1995, undated); Comstock's personal and professional correspondence (1882-1995, undated); a wide variety of photographs, including images of West Virginia cities and towns, among many others (ca. 1850s-1995, undated); microfilmed records of the Civil War and Dunmore's War (undated); glass lantern slides, which include views of scenery and buildings in Wheeling and various other locations in Ohio County, WV (1871-1897, undated); Grand Army of the Republic and U.S. military history scrapbooks (1883-1918); broadsides, including advertisements for a circus in Moundsville (ca. 1827-1960 [includes facsimiles]); and maps and atlases of pre- and post-statehood West Virginia, counties, colonial North America, and other topics (1730-1976, undated [includes facsimiles]). An addendum of 2013/05 includes additional personal and professional correspondence, publications, newspaper morgue files, photographs, audio-visual material, artifacts, scrapbooks, account books, and maps. For more information on Jim Comstock, see the Historical Note.

Biographical / Historical

Lucy Elizabeth Prichard (October 26, 1876 - July 29, 1964) was born in Cattletsburg, Kentucky. Daughter of Robert H. and Mary Prichard, she had a brother, Karl, and a sister-in-law, Elizabeth. Lucy taught at Huntington High School from 1899-1913, and taught Latin and Classical Studies at Marshall College (now Marshall University) from 1914-1941. Marshall's Prichard Hall was named in her honor.

Louis Eckert Reed (born October 1, 1899 in Wirt County, WV; died January 31, 1979 in Elizabeth, WV) served as a sergeant in the US Army during WWI, served as Administrative Assistant to Senator Chapman Revercomb, and worked as a prosecuting attorney in Wirt County, WV. He also wrote for Atlantic Monthly.

James Franklin "Jim" Comstock was born to Harry Clinton and Myrtle Blanche in Richwood, West Virginia on February 25, 1911. He married Miss Ola Stowers in Huntington, WV, on October 18, 1933; they would have two daughters, Sandra Ferguson and Elaine Nagy, and a son, Jay. In 1934, Comstock received B.A. from Marshall College (now Marshall University). From 1938-1942, he taught at Richwood High School and wrote for the Clarksburg Telegram. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1944-1946, and upon returning home he founded the Nicholas County News Leader (originally News Letter) with Bronson D. McClung (1920-2004), a former student of his. On December 25, 1963, the Nicholas County News Leader combined with Nicholas Republican; in 1984, it became the Richwood News Leader. Comstock remained an active part of the paper till his death on May 22, 1996. In 1957, Comstock founded the weekly West Virginia Hillbilly with McClung, and became its editor. The paper included feature articles, columns of special interest to West Virginians, book notes, and the "Comstock Load," the editor's own column on the back page. Comstock first tried to sell the Hillbilly in 1976. In 1981, he sold it to the South Charleston Publishing Company. On February 25, 1986, he repurchased and began resuscitating the Hillbilly. In 1992, he sold the Hillbilly to Sandy McCauley. In 2001, the Hillbilly ceased publication.

Comstock was involved in many endeavors in addition to his newspaper editing and reporting activities. In 1963, he ran unsuccessfully for Congress on the Republican ticket. He wrote, edited, and contributed to various books, including Pa and Ma and Mr. Kennedy, a 50-volume West Virginia Heritage Encyclopedia, and a collection of newspaper highlights entitled Best of Hillbilly. He was also involved in republishing books by West Virginian authors. He campaigned to purchase and preserve author Pearl S. Buck's birthplace at Hillsboro, and he helped save the Cass Scenic Railroad. He also founded the University of Hard Knocks, a lighthearted honorary society that recognizes the accomplishments of people who have succeeded in life without a college degree.

Scope and Contents

Lucy Prichard taught Latin and Classical Studies at Marshall College from 1914 to 1941. This series includes correspondence, photographs, and printed material. Correspondence includes Karl Prichard's letters (1918) and Lucy Prichard's letters (1925-1927, undated). Lucy's letters are addressed to her mother, Mrs. R.H. Prichard, in Huntington, WV. Many of Lucy's letters relate to her travels and studies in the Peloponnesus peninsula of Greece, the British Isles, Western Europe, and Italy in 1925 and 1927. For more information on Lucy Prichard, see the Historical Note.

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31039

Unit Date ca. 1960-1975, undated

Mixed Materials 5 (Box)

Mixed Materials 4 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This series includes newspaper clippings and typescripts of Wirt County resident and Atlantic Monthly writer Louis Eckert Reed. The newspaper clippings show images of Reed family photos (1960). The typescripts are short stories written by Louis, many likely unpublished. Also included are notes and a draft of Burning Springs, Virginia: The Civil War's Unsolved Mystery, initially a paper that Reed prepared for the West Virginia Historical Society (see Burning Springs, West Virginia: the Civil War's Unsolved Mystery, by Louis Reed, self-published in Elizabeth, WV, 1960). This material may have been developed for his later fictional novel, Burning Springs (published in Huntington, WV by University Editions/Aegina Press, 1985). For more information on Reed, see the Historical Note. A letter from Louis Reed to Jim Comstock regarding Reed's book Warning in Appalachia (1967) can be found in Series 6, Comstock Correspondence, box 62, folder 27. Other letters from Reed may be found elsewhere in Series 6, Correspondence.

Series 4. Account Books

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31040

Unit Date 1830-1938

Mixed Materials 6-17 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This series includes 27 account books, many of which relate to north-central West Virginia businesses. These ledgers document general stores, a Jewish-owned clothing store in Richwood, the activities of an itinerant Methodist minister in the mining villages of north-central West Virginia, grocery stores and meat markets, a glass manufacturer, and other businesses. See Separated Materials note for information on volumes separated to other collections.

Volume 1: B. Thistle and Friend Cox, General Store, Tyler County, WV. Ledger.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31068

Unit Date 1835-1837

Mixed Materials 6 (Box)

Scope and Contents

Thistle and Cox formed a partnership in Tyler County, [West] Virginia in March of 1835. This is the partnership's first ledger, which spans the years 1835-1837, but reference is made to the transfer of accounts to at least one subsequent ledger. The business appears to have been located near the Ohio River (probably in Sistersville), since customers included Ohio as well as Tyler County citizens. Although the debit side for each customer only lists the term "merchandise" for purchases, the ledger reveals the barter nature of much of the rural economy of Tyler County on the credit side. Among items received in trade by Thistle and Cox were chestnuts, hides, bees wax, rags, sand, tobacco, clothes, meats, produce, and various forms of labor. The ledger also frequently lists the occupations or residences of many of the customers. Included were coopers, tanners, blacksmiths, preachers, schoolteachers, and carpenters, scattered from Point Pleasant to Wheeling.

Volume 5: Unidentified General Store, Tyler County, WV.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31069

Unit Date 1877

Mixed Materials 6 (Box)

Scope and Contents

Inventory and Book Accounts. This volume contains a 66-page inventory of goods on hand and their prices in a Tyler County general store in January 1877. The inventory is divided into the following categories: fancy groceries, groceries, men's shoes, ladies' shoes, children's shoes, overshoes, dress goods, wall paper, housewares, and other. Starting on page 71 is a four-page list of the book accounts of the store's customers, presumably on that same date.

Volume 9: Cordray Carriage Company, Fairmont, WV. Ledger, 1906-1907, and Invoice, 1911.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31070

Unit Date 1906-1911

Mixed Materials 7 (Box)

Scope and Contents

The Cordray Carriage Company was a short-lived business in Fairmont, WV. The ledger lists only the customers and the amount they owed T.L. Cordray, the proprietor of the Carriage Company. The ledger does not list the services for which the customers were charged. However, one itemized account invoice on an inserted piece of paper suggests that the Cordray Carriage Company repaired vehicles. For H.O. Amos, from 1907 through 1911, the Company repaired couplings, repaired and painted the body, repaired the interior, raised the body, and tightened and repaired the fenders, for a total charge of $118. The ledger includes more than 400 customers.

Volumes 10 (box 7), 11 and 12 (box 8): A. H. Breckstein, Esq., Clothing Store, Richwood, WV. Account Books.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31071

Unit Date 1910, 1921-1936

Mixed Materials 7-8 (Box)

Scope and Contents

A. H. Breckstein was a Jewish merchant who operated a clothing store in the boom town of Richwood, in Nicholas County. Volume 10 is a cash book detailing daily transactions in the store, both sales and expenses, for part of 1910, and consistently for the period 1928 to 1936. There are also monthly accountings of both cash and credit sales as well as expenses. Volume 11 documents sales and purchases of clothing for the period 1926 to 1934. The sales portion of this volume repeats information available in volume 10. Volume 12 is a ledger of accounts payable for the period 1921-1928, showing the firms from which Breckstein purchased his goods. Included are companies in Baltimore, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and New York.

Volume 13: J.C. Shock, Methodist Minister, Pullman, WV. Account Book.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31072

Unit Date 1910-1938

Mixed Materials 9 (Box)

Scope and Contents

J.C. Shock was a Methodist minister assigned to a parish in Pullman, WV in 1910. However, he also appeared to be an itinerant preacher, and his account book lists ministerial services provided for the towns and villages of Duffy, Straight Fork, Falls Mill, Glady, and Kingknob, in the north-central West Virginia counties of Lewis, Ritchie, and Wetzel. The account book documents Shock's ministry, listing the text for sermons preached at various towns as well as the contributions of those towns to his salary. Most of the entries cover the years 1910-1917, at which time his base of operations seems to have shifted permanently to Falls Run and Falls Mill in Braxton County. There are entries for sermons, marriages, and assessments for those towns running to 1938. An additional folder contains miscellaneous documents related to Shock found within the ledger.

Volume 14: Mrs. Samuel C. Gans, General Store, Moundsville, WV. Ledger.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31073

Unit Date 1896-1911

Mixed Materials 9 (Box)

Scope and Contents

In the 1890s, Mrs. Samuel C. Gans operated a general store in Moundsville, which by 1900 was specializing in dry goods. This ledger reflects the volume of business and the timing and means of settling accounts. The early pages (for the 1890s) are more detailed, listing the items purchased from the general store. For the later period, the entries are frequently limited to the terms "goods" or "merchandise." The back of the volume also contains some notes and miscellaneous accounts, such as rooms rented.

Volume 15: St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Charleston, WV. Subscription Book and Ledger.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31074

Unit Date 1892-1912

Mixed Materials 10 (Box)

Scope and Contents

In 1892, a number of Charleston's German families banded together to form an Evangelical Lutheran Church. Subscriptions for a building fund and other church work began to be collected in October of that year. This ledger documents the subscriptions of the founding members of St. Paul's Evangelical Church. It also provides an accounting of the expenses and building funds contributed by the members, including the purchase of a lot on Court Street in Charleston, the church's construction, and the salary of the minister.

Volumes 16a and 16b: Albert S. Hayden, Notary Public, Marion County, WV. Ledger of Protested Notes.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31075

Unit Date 1870-1876

Mixed Materials 10 (Box)

Scope and Contents

These volumes were written by Albert S. Hayden, Notary Public in and for the county of Marion and the state of West Virginia. He recorded handwritten copies of promissory notes and bills presented at Fairmont, WV banks for redemption, which were protested by the First National Bank of Fairmont's cashier. The ledgers also list the date protested, by whom, and the notices mailed to note signers. Most notes originated in West Virginia, but some originated in Ohio. Volume 16a covers 1870-1873. Volume 16b covers 1875-1876.

Volumes 17a, 17b, and 17c: Anthony Zidn, General Store, Fairmont, WV. Ledgers.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31076

Unit Date ca. 1900-1905

Mixed Materials 11 (Box)

Scope and Contents

Anthony Zidn operated a grocery and dry goods store outside of Fairmont on RFD #2. Zidn was an immigrant from the Middle East (perhaps Armenia, as suggested by the fact he kept his accounts in Persian and had a Christian name). These three ledgers document his business, although most of the information is written in Persian.

Volume 18: Price Brothers, Grocery Store, Amos, WV. Ledger.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31077

Unit Date 1904

Mixed Materials 12 (Box)

Scope and Contents

The Price Brothers operated a general store in the small village of Amos on the Paw Paw Creek, eleven miles from the town of Fairmont in Marion County. The Price Brothers sold all sorts of groceries to people in the town, as documented by this ledger. In addition, the Polk business directory for 1902-1903 notes that the Price sisters operated a millinery business in Amos. There are loose papers within the ledger, including statements and product advertisements (1905-1907, undated).

Volume 19: Unidentified Meat Wholesaler, Wheeling, WV. Ledger.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31078

Unit Date 1901-1902

Mixed Materials 13 (Box)

Scope and Contents

At the turn of the century, there were four wholesale meat provisioners in Wheeling. This ledger represents the operations of one of them for the years 1901-1902. The company principally supplied general stores and grocers in eastern Ohio, northern West Virginia, southwestern Pennsylvania, and western Maryland. However, individuals could also buy directly. Entries typically include the name of the purchaser, the town in which the purchaser resides, and the amount of the purchase. For local buyers, the ledger frequently lists the Wheeling address. Since transactions are usually noted only as merchandise, it is impossible to glean what types of meats were being purchased at what costs.

Volumes 20 and 21 (box 14), and 22 (box 15): Jacob Hornbrook, Merchant and Businessman, Wheeling, WV. Account Books.

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31079

Unit Date 1845-1874

Mixed Materials 14-15 (Box)

Scope and Contents

Jacob Hornbrook was born in Tavistock, England, in 1812 and moved with his parents to Wheeling when he was a small child. Jacob's father ran a small [business?] in Wheeling. As a young man, Jacob began a mercantile business buying and selling produce on the flatboats travelling on the Ohio River. He later started a notions store, purchased interest in a steamship line and the First National Bank, and was president and owned stock in the Wheeling Gas Company. These three books, a journal (volume 20; 1847-1874), a ledger (volume 21; 1847-1874), and a cash book (volume 22; 1845-1874), document his business interests, investments, and personal expenses during the last three decades of his life. Although he remained an active investor, Hornbrook retired from his mercantile business in 1855 with an estate valued at more than $30,000. In 1852, he moved to what he called "Forest Home" near Wheeling Park, and he served in the West Virginia legislature during the Civil War.

Volume 23: Wheeling Gas Company, Wheeling, WV. Stockholders Minute Book and Subscribers List.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31080

Unit Date 1850

Mixed Materials 15 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This volume includes a manuscript copy of the act "To incorporate the Wheeling Gas Company" issued March 18, 1850; a copy of a related Wheeling city ordinance, issued April 29, 1850; stockholders meeting minutes, April 15, April 25, May 1, May 9, and May 11, 1850; and lists of subscribers, the number of shares of stock, and the amount paid.

Volume 24: George C. Gans, Physician, Marshall County, WV. Ledger.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31081

Unit Date 1838-1862

Mixed Materials 15 (Box)

Scope and Contents

George C. Gans was a physician practicing in Marshall County in the decades prior to the Civil War. Although most of his patients resided in the area around Moundsville and Elizabeth, Gans does not appear in either the 1840 or the 1850 U.S. census schedules for Marshall County. The ledger documents his treatment of families in Marshall County for a wide variety of ills, including typhoid fever (1861), cholera (1847), and farm injuries. Gans also routinely attended childbirths. His treatments included blistering, bleeding, venesection, lancing, and operating as well as administering medicine and pills. In return for his services, Gans routinely accepted farm produce, labor on his farm, and other useful items such as shingles. He went on to serve as an assistant surgeon in the Civil War.

Volume 25: Unidentified Glass Manufacturer, Elizabeth, PA. Ledger.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31082

Unit Date 1848-1850

Mixed Materials 15 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This is a ledger of an Elizabeth, PA, glass manufacturer's accounts with his workers. The manufacturer ran some type of company store, and the ledger thus includes debits for cash and merchandise received by the workers and credits for the various types of labor performed, including glass blowing, teasing, cutting, coal mining, blacksmithing, and box making. In addition, the ledger includes the manufacturer's accounts with a boarding house owner for boarding his workers and with a local merchant who supplied the company store. In general, the ledger provides insights into the earnings of mid-19th century artisans as well as the operation of a small, rural glass-making establishment.

Volume 26: Unidentified Commission Merchant House, Wheeling, WV. Consignment Book.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31083

Unit Date 1830-1842

Mixed Materials 16 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This consignment book documents commodity prices and the wide variety of goods received by a Wheeling commission merchant house during the 1830s. It also provides insights into the local industrial development, since the commission merchants routinely received goods on consignment from local manufacturers, such as the German Manufacturing Company (textiles). At the beginning of the book, there is evidence that the firm engaged a peddler to make trips in 1830, and the commission house also conducted auctions during the 1830s.

Volume 27: Moses Chapline, Merchant, Wheeling, WV. Daybook.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31084

Unit Date 1845

Mixed Materials 16 (Box)

Scope and Contents

Moses Chapline was a prominent citizen in Wheeling, at various times an attorney, a general store owner, and in the 1830s, mayor. This daybook documents the daily trade at his store during 1845. Included are entries for purchases of a wide variety of goods as well as entries for store expenses, such as insurance, soap, and transportation. The A. Loring who appears frequently throughout was probably Alonzo Loring, a clerk at the store.

Volume 28: Harry Hood and Company, Meat Market, Fairmont, WV. Ledger.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31085

Unit Date 1906-1907

Mixed Materials 16 (Box)

Scope and Contents

Harry Hood and Company was a retail meat and dairy market in Fairmont, WV. This ledger covers the last few months of 1906 and the first months of 1907. It documents purchases of meat from wholesale producers, such as Armour and Company, and sales of meat to local businesses and individuals in Fairmont. Transactions are typically listed only as "merchandise," making it difficult to glean any information concerning prices or consumption patterns. The ledger is used only for the first 150 of its 500 pages, and the business does not appear in the Polk business directory of 1906-1907, suggesting the possibility that it folded some time in 1907.

Volume 29: Unidentified General Store, Tyler County, WV. Ledger.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31086

Unit Date 1888-1892

Mixed Materials 17 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This ledger documents a general store in Tyler County, probably near Middlebourne, the county seat. Although fairly routine entries characterize customer purchases, the volume also documents purchases from wholesale merchants, beginning on page 251. Included are such firms as Hubbard and Paull, and Jos. Speidel, both of Wheeling; Ed Roome of Sistersville; and Burgunder Brothers and Company, of Columbus, Ohio. Also, the ledger often lists the occupations of the store's customers. Included are John Gates, an oil rig builder (reflecting the emergence of the local oil business) and a number of customers connected to a local woolen mill.

Volume 30: Bleakmor, Gallaher, and Ansbrutz, General Store, Moundsville, WV. Daybook.

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31087

Unit Date 1851-1856

Mixed Materials 17 (Box)

Scope and Contents

John Gallaher, Christian Ansbrutz, and Caleb Bleakmor started a general store partnership in 1853. Prior to that date, Gallaher operated a store in Moundsville, which is documented in the first 90 pages of the daybook. The daybook follows the partnership for only six months (until September 1853), but then another Moundsville general store (involving Bleakmor) used the daybook during 1856. In the 1850 census, Bleakmor was listed as a constable, age 49, born in Maryland; and Ansbrutz was listed as a miller, age 47, born in France, worth $23,000. Only Gallaher, a 53-year-old Irishman worth $12,000, was listed as a merchant. From the evidence in the daybook, it appears that the partnership was short-lived.

Series 5. Printed Material

Unit ID Archival Resource Key

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31041

Unit Date 1829-1995, undated

Mixed Materials 18-25 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This series includes ephemera, sheet music, booklets, pamphlets, and correspondence. Additional miscellaneous printed material can be found in Series 17, Oversize.

Box 18 includes calendars, sheet music, notecards, and printed material related to West Virginia history. The notecards include screen printed notecards from Wolf Creek Printery in Alderson, WV (1976). The history printed material includes a booklet entitled Wheeling Bicentennial, 1769-1969 (1969?).

Box 19 includes West Virginia serial publications and magazines, as well as printed material about West Virginia schools and locations. Highlights include three issues of The Searchlight, a serial about education (two published in Summersville, WV [1895-1896], and one published in Fayetteville, WV [1899]); an issue of The Mikrophone: Devoted to Religion, Morality, and Temperance (published in Highland, WV, by D.H. Davis, 1906); Scottish Rite pamphlets (published in Wheeling, 1910-1917); the Richwood High School Class of 1940 reunion program (1960); Craigsville Grade School's first yearbook (1973); and Mountaineer Spirit, a WVU student magazine featuring an article about Jim Comstock (1968).

Box 20 includes non-West Virginia serial publications and magazines. Highlights include an issue of The Religious Magazine, or Spirit of the Foreign Theological Journals and Reviews (Philadelphia: E. Littell, 1829); and E.D. Cope's On Vertebrata from the Tertiary and Cretaceous Rocks of the North West Territory (Montreal: W.F. Brown & Co., 1891); Naval Training School -- Indoctrination, Hollywood Florida: Quarterdeck, Class of 3-44, 20 June 1944 (Hollywood, FL: Naval Training School, 1944); and issue no. 18 of Papers from the Society for the Diffusion of Political Knowledge (undated).

Box 21 includes various writings, such as student literary magazines, works of fiction, poetry booklets, and George T. Swain's The Incomparable Don Chafin (Charleston, WV: Ace Enterprises, 1962).

Box 22 includes George T. Swain's Facts About the Two Armed Marches on Logan (Charleston, WV: Ace Enterprises, 1962), as well as printed materials for a variety of West Virginia and non-West Virginia businesses and organizations. These include advertisements and booklets regarding the West Virginia glass industry, including Fenton Glass (1966-1976, undated), a Woman's Club of Gassaway booklet (1970), a reprint of the Berkeley Springs Hotel Brochure of 1885 (1988), and the constitution of the First Baptist Church of Richwood, WV (undated). For additional business-related printed material, see also Series 1, Historical Documents, box 2b, folders 11-12.

Box 23 includes miscellaneous booklets, programs, book plates, articles, clippings, and other material. Highlights include Rules of Practice in the United States Patent Office (Washington: U.S. G.P.O., 1892), Elbert Hubbard's Little Journeys to the Homes of Great Teachers: Erasmus (East Aurora, Erie County, NY: The Roycrofters, 1908), the Richwood Spud and Splinter Festival Program (1940), and Eugene L. Huddleston's The World's Greatest Mallets: C & O H-8 Versus N & W Class A (Alderson, WV: Chesapeake & Ohio Historical Society, 1986).

Boxes 24 and 25 contain books, including Comstock's autobiography.

Series 6. Comstock Correspondence

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31042

Unit Date 1882-1995, undated (bulk 1950-1995)

Unit Date Bulk, 1950–1995

Mixed Materials 26-72 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This series includes Jim Comstock's personal and professional correspondence. This series contains materials that are diverse in format, including letters, scripts for radio and other media, clippings, postcards, typescripts, articles, financial materials (e.g. bank books and checks), printed material, ephemera, and photographs. Most of the photographic material in this series has been moved to Series 7, Photographs. Some materials were moved to Series 17, Oversize -- see the Series 17 description for details.

Comstock marked much of his correspondence to be filed by the first letter of the correspondent's last name. Some of this organizational scheme has survived; folders containing specific letter and year files are dispersed throughout the series. Other notations that Comstock used include "LR" for letters received, "Sp" for speech-related correspondence, "NL" for News Leader-related correspondence, and "HB" for West Virginia Hillbilly-related correspondence.

Topics and items of interest include:

letters written to Comstock by regional author Jesse Stuart, and by political figures such as Hubert H. Humphrey, Robert C. Byrd, Jennings Randolph, and Barry Goldwater (box 26 and others); rejection letters from newspapers and magazines to which Comstock submitted material (box 26);

biographical material about Jim Comstock and his family, including a thesis about Comstock by Mary Abel (boxes 26 and 47);

Larry Maynor, journalist for the Charleston Daily Mail (box 29);

the sale and ultimate demise of the West Virginia Hillbilly (boxes 31 and 72);

the University of Hard Knocks, including a mock-up diploma, resumes, and portrait photograph headshots of potential graduates (boxes 31 and 60);

[Delf] Norona Collection payments (boxes 33 and 46);

Pearl S. Buck (box 33 and others);

Billy Edd Wheeler, West Virginia writer and musician (box 36);

Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) reunion in 1979 (box 36);

Otto Whittaker, who worked with Comstock on The Best of the Hillbilly (boxes 37 and 65);

the West Virginia Heritage Encyclopedia (box 40);

Comstock's appearance on John Nebel's WOR radio show in 1960, including postcards and letters regarding the appearance and requests for Comstock's Richwood Kinsey Report as well as News Leader or West Virginia Hillbilly subscriptions (boxes 41-42);

Comstock's appearance on the Today Show in 1966 (box 42);

Comstock's appearance on Patricia/Patsy McCann's WOR radio show in New York in August 1977, including letters and postcards regarding the appearance and requests to receive the free six-week subscription to the West Virginia Hillbilly which Comstock offered on the show (boxes 42-43);

writers, with an emphasis on West Virginia authors, whose work Comstock was interested in collecting (boxes 40, 44, 45, and 62);

writings by Comstock, including short stories, articles, drafts, etc. (boxes 47-49);

Comstock's nomination and campaign for a U.S. House of Representatives seat on the Republican ticket in 1964 (boxes 51 and 56);

the West Virginia Hillbilly and News Leader, including morgue files, old articles, submissions, letters, and other items (boxes 54, 55, 57, 61, 63, and others; for oversize items, see Series 17, Oversize, box 116);

Eck Bozeman (box 57);

Comstock's pocket diaries (box 57);

Comstock's naval service during World War II (box 60);

H.C. Comstock, Jim's father (box 68); and historical research material, possibly for the Encyclopedia (box 72).

Please note that the above list is not exhaustive.

Mixed Materials 73-81 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This series includes print photographs, negatives, cartes de visite, cabinet cards, mounted photos, tintypes, photo postcards, slides, clippings, printed material, correspondence, photo plates, and eight canisters of large format aerial diapositives (photo transparencies). Subjects include furniture; first ladies of West Virginia; historic homes of West Virginia; identified and unidentified individual and group portraits; cities and towns of West Virginia; buildings; scenery; Museum of the Hills in Richwood, WV; glass and glassmaking; and the Greenbrier. Some of the material in this series was transferred from Series 6, Comstock Correspondence -- in cases where the photographic item was attached to correspondence, the correspondence was transferred as well. Please note that some negatives are nitrate; keep these away from heat and handle with care. Additional photographic material can be found in Series 6, Correspondence, boxes 35, 54, 55, and 72. For photos of Fenton Glass products, see Series 5, Printed Material, box 22. Some oversize photos have been separated to the Photographs Collection; most of these have been added to West Virginia History OnView. Additional oversize photos can be found in Series 17, Oversize.

Mixed Materials 104 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This series includes newspapers from Wheeling, as well as a special bicentennial salute issue of the West Virginia Hillbilly (1976). The majority of the newspapers in this collection have been separated to the West Virginia Collection's newspaper holdings. A list of the newspapers originally inventoried for this collection can be found in the control folder.

Most of the West Virginia newspapers have been microfilmed; see Miscellaneous Reel 113 in the Microfilm Room. For a list of the contents of this reel, please see the "W.Va. Newspapers from Comstock Collection" three-page packet in the control folder. Additional newspaper pages and clippings can be found throughout Series 6, Comstock Correspondence and Series 17, Oversize, box 117.

Mixed Materials 110-117 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This subseries includes paintings, sketches, prints, photographs, educational posters, architectural drawings, vinyl records, typescripts, transparencies, clippings, manuscripts, and printed material, among other formats. Topics include Pearl Buck's birthplace, West Virginia, the Civil War, Jim Comstock's work, and other topics. More manuscripts are in the Manuscripts subseries, box 118.

Box 110 and box 111, folders 1-2 contain artwork depicting Pearl Buck's birthplace in Hillsboro, West Virginia, including paintings, sketches, a chalk drawing, and a plan for a sign (1965-1966, undated).

Box 111, folders 3-4 and unfolded items include two West Virginia-related prints and an unidentified photo (undated); one framed and six unframed prints depicting mining machinery, possibly of Joy Manufacturing Company (undated); an unframed painting of a coal miner (undated); twelve mounted photographs and sketches (most unidentified, undated); and four rolled photographs (1918-1955?).

Box 112 includes educational posters regarding the Civil War and West Virginia history (undated). The posters include text, images, and photographs. Also includes mounted photographs, most with accompanying text, that have been added to West Virginia History On View. An additional eight posters regarding maps made by or related to North American Indians, likely assembled by Delf Norona, are also included (ca. 1950). For additional maps related to North American Indians/Native Americans, see also Series 14, Maps, box 98, item number 349.

Box 113 includes various West Virginia-related prints, including one of Mount Chantal near Wheeling (undated); prints of Civil War scenes sketched from nature and drawn on stone by J. Nep Roesler, Corporal of Color 47th Regiment of Ohio Volunteers (undated); a copy print of the camps of the 4th Brigade, 1st Division, 8th Army Corps. near Romney (undated); prints made from Civil War engravings (1960); W.R. Leigh bullfighting prints (1950); copies of architectural plans for alterations of Wheeling's Custom House and Post Office (undated); and other items.

Box 114 contains limited edition black and white prints from a series entitled "Covered Bridges of West Virginia" by Marj Teague (1977) and three copies of a vinyl record album titled "The Legend of Clark Kessinger" (ca. 1965).

Box 115 includes paintings by John Wellington (undated); oversize photos (undated); an unidentified floor plan (undated); and architectural drawings or blueprints for five properties that were part of the Historic American Buildings Survey (undated). These properties are "The Old Stone Church" Presbyterian, Lewisburg, WV; Harewood and the ruins of St. George's Chapel, both near Charles Town, Jefferson County, WV; Traveler's Rest, near Leetown, Jefferson County, WV; and the Lee Barn in Leetown, WV.

Box 116 includes radio scripts (undated; see also Series 6, Comstock Correspondence, box 67); calendars (1984-1991); Hillbilly transparencies (undated; see also Series 6, Comstock Correspondence, box 54); various printed images and magazine clippings (1860-1921, undated); "Our Wacky Weekly" and newspaper article typescripts, probably written by Comstock (undated; see also Series 6, Comstock Correspondence, box 48, folder 1); and music-related magazines and pamphlets (1959-1966, undated).

Box 117 includes Berkeley County documents from the Barnet Cushwa Papers (see also Series 1, Historical Documents, box 1, folders 1-5). These include lists of orders, taxes, fees, etc.; sheriff's office accounts; and land holdings (all 1854-1858). Box 117 also includes television scripts (undated); an envelope and survey plat from the Wells Family Papers (1856, undated; see also Series 1, Historical Documents, box 2a, folder 24); Civil War-related prints (1861-1868, 1955); newspaper clippings (1861, 1927-1944, undated; some from Series 6, Comstock Correspondence, box 67, folders 4 and 7); miscellaneous printed material (1817-1863, undated; includes facsimiles); and facsimile broadsides, legal documents, and clippings regarding West Virginia statehood (1861-1863).

Unit Date 1838-2003, undated (bulk 1950-1995)

Mixed Materials box 119 - box 133 folder 4, and box 134 folders 1-11.

Scope and Contents

This series includes Jim Comstock's personal and professional correspondence, and is composed of a wide range of formats, including letters, clippings, postcards, typescripts, articles, financial documents, printed material, ephemera, and photographs. Most of the photographic material in this series has been moved to Series 21, Photographs.

Comstock marked much of his correspondence to be filed by the first letter of the correspondent's last name. Some of this organizational scheme has survived; folders containing specific letter and year files can be found in boxes 119-125. Other notations that Comstock used include "NL" for News Leader-related correspondence and "HB" for West Virginia Hillbilly-related correspondence.

Topics and items of interest include:

card from Comstock to recent graduates regarding a gift subscription to the Hillbilly (undated) (box 119);

Comstock's work with the Pearl Buck House (box 127);

the University of Hard Knocks (box 128); photocopies of a scrapbook about ramps and Comstock's ramp-scented ink incident; and material regarding Comstock's work on the Hillbilly, the News Leader, and the West Virginia Encyclopedia (boxes 126-127 and other material throughout) (see also Series 20, Subject Files).

Please note that the above list is not exhaustive and that material on the above topics may also exist in boxes not mentioned.

*Please note: boxes 123 and 133 could contain allergens. Masks and gloves will be provided for patrons wishing to use them.

Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/31056

Unit Date ca. 1851-1995, undated

Mixed Materials 137-146 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This series includes mostly morgue files of material that Comstock used in connection with his newspapers. Contents are not in alphabetical order. Formats include clippings, typescripts, photographs, print material, and other formats. The News Leader morgue materials (boxes 137-138) include items on a variety of subjects, such as covered bridges and the early history of Clay County. The News Leader morgue material also includes a folder of autographs of early West Virginia governors and other politicians, such as D.D.T. Farnsworth, John J. Jacobs, and A.B. Fleming. The Hillbilly morgue materials (box 139-140) pertain to a wide variety of subjects, most of whom are likely local individuals. The Newspaper Subjects (boxes 141-146) includes material for which the intended newspaper was not specified; topics include specific local individuals, national figures like Abraham Lincoln, steel and other industries, and towns.

Unit Date ca. 1870s-2003, undated

Mixed Materials 147-149 (Box)

Scope and Contents

This series includes cartes de visite, cabinet cards, mounted photographs, photographic prints, clippings, and other formats. Many subjects are identified. They include portraits and candid photos of individuals, families, politicians, sports figures, West Virginia towns and buildings. Other notable photographs include crime scene and/or accident photographs, including images of a non-commercial plane crash (undated), and photos of Jim Comstock at the West Virginia Senate (1966). Photographs can also be found in Series 18, Correspondence; Series 20, Subject Files; and Series 26, Oversize Material.

Please note: boxes 123, 133, and 149 could contain allergens. Masks and gloves will be provided for patrons wishing to use them.

Additional cirkut photos include:

Loose folder 1: a group portrait of the West Virginia Young People's Conference, Greenbrier Military School, Lewisburg, WV (1929), and a group portrait of the Divisional Young People's Congress, Charleston, WV (1929);

Loose folder 2: a group portrait of the Western Virginia Conference Epworth League (1928-1929);

Loose folder 3: photos of an unidentified bridge and factories or plants (1916 and undated) and the Appalachian Electric Power Company Turner Substation (1929);

Loose folder 4: a birds-eye view of Richwood (undated) and a group portrait of Cabin Creek Consolidated

Coal Company Safety First Teams (1933).

Box 156 also includes a genealogy chart and architectural drawings. The genealogy chart (undated) documents the Paull family, which is accompanied by a note: "Goes with Jefferson [Fry-Jefferson?] Map." The architectural drawings (1972-1976, undated) depict buildings from Richwood. Box 157 includes a book of exhibits from the Virginia vs. West Virginia Supreme Court case in 1914, and a license for John W. Love to practice Law (1925). Also includes a muster roll for Company I, 2nd Regiment, [West] Virginia Volunteer Cavalry, U.S. Army (1863 February).
