Scope and Contents

Paper catalog and two sets of microfiche from the International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) Reference Library. The ISEP network allowed WVU to connect with institutions in many other countries across the globe in order to provide study abroad experiences.

The reference library included microfiche versions of fellow ISEP institutions' course catalogs. Also included in this collection are materials pertaining to FACDIS (Faculty and Course Development in International Studies) showing that items from the ISEP catalog were provided to various people upon request. This suggests that FACDIS and ISEP may have once been administered by the same unit, or that FACDIS may have utilized the ISEP catalog.

A small number of records containing personally identifiable information (PII) of students has been removed and placed in closed collections.
